E-LEARNING MADE EASY AND THAT DOES NOT BREAK THE BANK

Get your courses out there!

There are many training companies sitting with training courses that they would like to convert to e-Learning, but the cost is prohibitive. There are also courses which have been developed for face to face facilitation which would gain a far wider audience if they were developed digitally into e-Learning products. Let us convert your material!

We can develop and convert your material into great e-Learning without it being costly. We know the importance of taking your training on-line and are very aware that the costs of conversion are in most cases, the major reason for it not having been done already.

We offer a low-cost budget beating solution which enables you to get your product to market in an e-Learning format which can range from simple yet effective to a sophisticated high-level production.

The courses can be branded, customized and developed to the standards you require with excellent features such as video, animation, pictures, on screen white board learning, voice overs etc.

Try our low-cost solution!

Academy of Wealth will analyse your material with you and provide you with a quote for your eLearning solution.
